

Paducah School of Art & Design

A division of West Kentucky Community & Technical College

Quality Art Education in West Kentucky

The Paducah School of Art & Design (PSAD) was developed by West Kentucky Community and Technical College (WKCTC) as an outgrowth of the successful Artist Relocation Program in Lowertown Paducah, Kentucky.

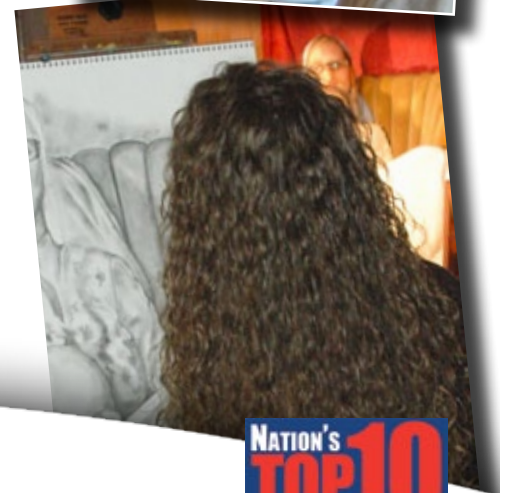

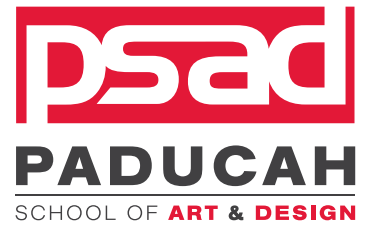

The Paducah School of Art & Design offers classes in a wide variety of visual arts studio areas and art history. Students can take beginning and intermediate classes for credit or non-credit and may choose to pursue the Associate in Fine Arts (AFA) degree. Students may also choose to take classes at all levels purely for the pursuit of personal excellence.

Courses Offered

The Paducah School of Art & Design offers courses in:

- 2-D Design
- 3-D Design
- Art History
- Ceramics
- Color Theory
- Drawing
- Digital Imaging & Photography
- Painting
- Sculpture

HIGHER EDUCATION BEGINS HERE

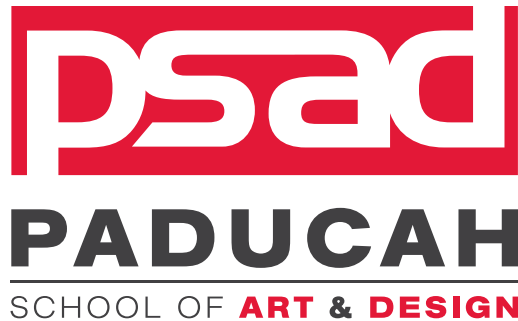

Paducah School of Art & Design is located in downtown Paducah. All studio classes in drawing, painting, 2-D design, 3-D design, sculpture and ceramics are offered at 409 Broadway.

The photography and digital imaging studio is located next door at 413 Broadway.

The studios are open from 9:00 a.m. until 9:15 p.m., Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m. on Friday and 10:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m. on Saturday.

Goals of the Paducah School of Art & Design

- To challenge each student to reach his or her highest level of artistic potential
- To produce culturally literate citizens who value art as a natural and integral part of their lives
- To serve as an anchor for the Paducah's Arts District, creating a magnet for talent, energy and critical thinking
- To provide culturally stimulating, thought provoking programming to the citizens of Western Kentucky and neighboring regions.

Contact Information

(270) 408-4278

PaducahSchoolOfArtandDesign.org

www.facebook.com/WKPSA

Revised: May 28, 2013